This website is designed to help people looking for volunteer opportunities in Cartagena de Indias, Colombia.

Cartagenitos aims to provide free information for anybody who wants to help under-privileged children in Cartagena. This is not a commercial website or an organisation that allocates volunteers for a fee. The information and contacts given on this website are for the use of those whom are interested in volunteering without paying a cent, or for travelers who are already in Cartagena and want to stay and make good use of their time here. You can help or volunteer in many different ways, it simply depends on you, your ideas and capabilities. If you want to know how you can be involved or if you want to discuss an idea you would like to realise, or if you just want more information about Cartagenitos, write to us via our Contact Page.

We are excited to announce that we are now collaborating with Heart For Change, a like minded organisation based in Bogota. Heart For Change has links to other institutions in Bogota as well as a director (Andrea Calderon Leal) who has a long history in humanitarian work. We look forward to working with Heart For Change towards realising a better future for the children of Colombia.
